DS The Studio has unveiled its expansive new facility at The Shops at Gainey Village in Scottsdale.

The new facility, which is now open to customers, offers 5,500 square feet of interior design ideas and furniture.

"In addition to our fantastic new space, we continue to offer top to bottom interior design services," said Tom Reimers, owner of DS The Studio.

"From paint, draperies and thousands of fabric options to unique furniture and accessories, we are really well equipped to see clients all the way through the design process."

With 25 years of experience in the interior design industry, Reimers brings insight from his extensive experience in designing for both commercial and residential projects.

DS The Studio specializes in a more traditional design aesthetic, but also excels at modernizing these looks with unique texture pairings.

"We really strive to create looks that will endure the test of time and lend themselves to simple updates," Reimers said.

"The resources and ideas on display in our new studio will make that process even more exciting and interactive for customers."

Reimers and his DS The Studio team are behind several notable designs in Arizona, including the Rancho de los Caballeros resort in Wickenburg, and the Hermosa Inn in Paradise Valley.

DS The Studio offers retail design services, as well as catering to independent interior designers. Projects range from single rooms and homes to large commercial spaces.

DS The Studio offers a wide selection of furnishings and accessories, which encompass unique style collections reflecting southern Tuscany, hand-carved and textured Southwestern motifs, and the ultra-sleek contemporary styles.
